

OREGON CARE CAREERS

Long-term care is a growing healthcare field offering readily accessible jobs and meaningful career pathways.

Aging baby boomers and rising life expectancies have generated rapid growth in the field of long-term care. To meet the increasing demand for these essential healthcare and senior living services, Oregon long-term care communities are actively recruiting new team members for a wide array of roles—each contributing to the quality of life and care of the people who call these communities home. Compassionate individuals with diverse talents and skills are needed for communities to thrive. Long-term care career pathways include:

- Activities
- Business & Marketing
- Care Coordination
- Foodservice
- Leadership
- Resident Care & Nursing
- Support Service, and more.
